Fitting Electric, LLC offers residential, commercial and industrial electrical services, including new construction, maintenance, repairs, solar installations and generators. We can take the customer from layout and planning to installation and finish. Licensed in NJ and Philadelphia, Fitting Electric, LLC has been operating in Lambertville and the surrounding communities since 2000.

I was first attracted to The Bank of Princeton as an investor, largely due to the founders' vision and banking track record. I have since transferred my business accounts to the Bank of Princeton and have been thrilled with the personalized customer service.
