Annie's opened its doors at 5 N. Union Street on September 1, 2013. As a family business, Annie's is operated by sisters Julienne & Amy, who are chef-trained, and Christine who is the "front of the House personality." The girls started their careers with their mother Debra; developing a prepared food department for an upscale supermarket in Yardley, PA. Annie's also offers their catering services to events in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Their passion for food came from their grandmother Annie, who was a tremendous cook and their main inspiration.

"When we came to Lambertville and asked the previous owner which bank she used, we were introduced to The Bank of Princeton. The staff is so welcoming, gracious, and most of all... helpful and encouraging. Annie's has only been with the bank for three and a half weeks but we decided to sign a five-year lease. I am glad that we brought our business to The Bank of Princeton! Thanks so much!"
